Description of Incident 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> a) Wrong date of birth. It is e.g. people who have been lied to as younger than they really are.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> b) Wrong city of birth. This is, for example, where it is stated that one was born in Seoul, but in reality was born in Busan.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> c) The identity of the adoptee is incorrect (the adoptee is not the person who appears in the adoption papers). This is, for example, where adoptees are sent in the identity of a dead child or another adoptee.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> d) The adopted person's status as an orphan is incorrect. It is e.g. cases where the adoption papers say that you are an orphan, but in reality the parents are alive and the adopted person has been made an administrative orphan on paper to facilitate the adoption process.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> e) Cases of serious illness, malnutrition or poor health. Welfare cases where the adoptee's welfare has not been considered by adoption agencies or the Korean state. It is e.g. cases where adoptees have arrived in the recipient country sick, malnourished or in another unsound condition, where the adoptee has not yet received formal Danish citizenship and is therefore under the responsibility of the adoption agencies and the Korean state.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> f) Background information is refused by the adoption agencies. These are cases where adoptees ask for access to their own personal information, but are denied access to background information.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> g) The adoption agencies do not initiate post-adoption proceedings in accordance with the Adoption Act in Korea regarding to obtain consent for the release of third party information (e.g. biological family) from the third party.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> h) Sibling cases, where the adopted person finds out that he/she has been separated from a brother or sister, and where the right according to Article 8 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child applies.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> i) Cases where the adoptee is told by the adoption agency that the information in the adoption case is incorrect, but where the adoption agency refuses to disclose the content of the correct or incorrect information.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> j) Cases where the adoptee finds out that their name as per the adoption papers is incorrect. This applies to adoptees who use their Korean name in full or who are legally registered with their Korean name as stated in the official Korean adoption documents.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> k) Abuse of the adopted person. These are cases where the adoptee before and after the time of adoption has been subjected to physical, psychological or sexual abuse in institutions or in the custody of adoption agencies in Korea or by the adoptive family.</li> </ul>

	<input type="checkbox"/> l) Adoptees are classified as disabled on an incorrect basis (health-related). These are cases where a temporary bacterial or viral infection is found in the child, but which has not resulted in permanent harm or physical disabilities, and which cannot be classified as a disability according to ordinary medical standards.  <input type="checkbox"/> m) Other incorrect or false information
Reasons for the incident requiring truth-finding  (Reasons for the incident requiring a retrial)	As the French philosopher Simone Weil said: "You must know your past to understand your present and shape your future" Thousands of Korean children are under the authoritarian rule of Korea were sent out as international adoptees. International adoption has been a taboo surrounded by dogmas, taboos and narratives by the adoption's many actors. For the adoptees themselves, international adoption is characterized by uncertainty for the unreconciled. For the Aggrieved, who have experienced violations of their human rights, uncertainty has been replaced by astonishment, anger and bitterness. It is time for the truth about international adoption under the authoritarian rule to come out. As adoptees, we demand to be told the truth about interational so we can reconcile.
I/We hereby submit an application to request truth-finding pursuant to Article 20 of the Framework Act on Clearing up Past Incidents for Truth and Reconciliation and Article 3 of the Enforcement Decree of said Act.
